

Name: _____ Date: _____ TOC#: _____

DIRECTIONS FOR JOURNAL TOPIC: You need to write a complete paragraph (five or more sentences per paragraph) on the topic giving. You should have an introduction sentence, three support sentences and a concluding sentence. Write at least five complete sentences on the topic below.

1. Stay on topic.
2. Use correct grammar and spelling.
3. Proof read your paper, and have an adult proofread your paper.
4. All sentences need to end with a punctuation mark.
5. Do not start a sentence with and, but, because, or, nor, or so.
6. Indent the first word in the paragraph.
7. Capitalize the first word in each sentence and all proper nouns.

Journal Topic (JT): “Which do you think would be easier to find, the size of a plant population or the size of an animal population?” Explain your answer. This may be typed or written in your good handwriting. Do your best and enjoy this activity. This counts as a daily grade. There will be NO re-writes on this journal topic.