

Name: _____ Date: _____ TOC# _____

SS# _____

Forest Questions p. 89-91

1. Forests contain many valuable _____.
Many products are made from the fruits, seed, and other parts of forest plants.
2. Trees and other _____ produce oxygen that organism need to survive. They also absorb
3. _____ and many pollutants from the air.
4. Because new trees can be planted to replace trees that are cut down, forests can be _____ resources.
5. _____ is the process of cutting down all the trees in an area at once. Cutting down only some trees in a forest and leaving a mix of tree
6. sizes and species behind is called _____.
7. When an area of forest is clear-cut, the _____
8. changes. After clear-cutting, the _____ is exposed to wind and rain. Without the protection of the tree roots, the soil is more easily blown or washed away.
9. A _____ is an amount of a renewable resource such as trees that can be harvested regularly without reducing the future supply.

Objective: